Training Facilities

At Carnegie Conference Centre, all of our rooms provide an excellent training environment, with natural daylight and comfortable seating.

We have two training rooms equipped with PCs and overhead projectors as well as conference, seminar and meeting rooms with an enviable selection of high quality food served in our Canmore Restaurant for course delegates. All of our rooms are available for hire. Setup and details of each of the rooms is available. Specific information on cost of hire and maximum capacities for each room is also available.

All our training rooms are equipped with a comprehensive range of audio-visual and presentation equipment. An on-site technician is always available to support your event. Broadband Internet access is available in all training rooms via cabled or wireless connections, telephones, whiteboards, flip charts, and a photocopying and fax service is also available.

Send your training presentation direct to the Carnegie Conference Centre mailbox and access it directly from your training room when you arrive.

Carnegie Conference Centre also has a suite of interactive learning materials that are available for hire that can be used within a high performance team development training programme.

- Colour Blind
- The Hat Factory
- The Supply Chain
- Egg Ballista
- Tower Build
- Dracula
- Murder Mystery

We also have a team of trainers available to support in the development of training courses or deliver training on your behalf. The team have expertise across the fields of Microsoft training, Project Management and Personal and Professional Development programmes. Full day and 1/2 day rates are available.
